INSANI Scholarship

(Indonesian AID Scholarship for Islamic Community Development)

Universitas Islam Internasional Indonesia (UIII)

FOREWORD

Praise be to Allah SWT, the Almighty, for His grace and guidance, allowing us to embark together on this noble initiative that unites humanitarian vision with intellectual advancement. On behalf of the academic community of the Universitas Islam Internasional Indonesia (UIII), we are honored to be selected as the implementing partner for the scholarship program titled "Indonesian AID Scholarship for Islamic Community Development (INSANI)" This strategic program is made possible through the dedication and full support of the Government of the Republic of Indonesia via the Indonesian Agency for International Development (Indonesian AID) or LDKPI together with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Indonesia (Kemlu RI).

This document is drafted as a comprehensive manual for all parties involved in the scholarship provision process, both internal and external. These technical guidelines outline the regulations, requirements, types and components of the scholarship, disbursement procedures, as well as monitoring and evaluation protocols to ensure implementation remains transparent, accountable, and well-targeted. This scholarship is a tangible manifestation of Indonesia's commitment to strengthening global solidarity and South-South cooperation, particularly within the scope of Islamic community development. With open arms and a warm heart, we welcome the finest talents from 17 partner countries:

Algeria, Azerbaijan, Bangladesh, Burkina Faso, Iran, Iraq, Libya, Maldives, Mauritania, Morocco, Mozambique, Palestine, Somalia, Sudan, Syria, Tunisia, and Yemen.

The presence of students from such diverse cultural and geographical backgrounds is more than a mere statistic; it is a symphony of diversity that will enrich the academic and social dialogue at the UIII campus. We are committed to equipping scholars with the knowledge, practical skills, and values of moderation (wasathiyah) necessary to rebuild and advance their respective home communities. Through this program, UIII together with Indonesian AID and Kemlu RI strive to cultivate future leaders capable of addressing modern challenges with solutions rooted in the values of Islam Rahmatan lil 'Alamin.

We extend our deepest gratitude to Indonesian AID and Kemlu RI for the trust placed in us. To the scholarship recipients: welcome to Indonesia, welcome to the house of knowledge. Let us weave this brotherhood and cooperation for a brighter and more competitive future for Islamic civilization.

Wassalamu'alaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh,

Depok, February 09, 2026

Prof. Jamhari
Rector of UIII

INSANI

The Indonesian AID Scholarship for Islamic Community Development (INSANI) is an educational assistance program from the Government of Indonesia aimed at supporting the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), particularly in the education sector. Reflecting the spirit of the Asian African Conference, the INSANI Scholarship focuses on developing the skills and expertise of future leaders from Indonesia's priority partner countries. This program also serves as a soft diplomacy tool to strengthen cooperation and friendship between partner nations through human resource development.

For the 2026 intake, the INSANI Scholarship at UIII offers Master's and Doctoral degree programs for civil servants, government officials, lecturers, and professionals from non-governmental organizations (NGOs), including individuals officially nominated by their respective governments. This scholarship provides a meaningful academic and cultural experience in Indonesia through studies at leading universities and polytechnics, alongside the opportunity to live and interact within a multicultural and multilingual environment.

Through the INSANI program, recipients are expected to enhance their intellectual capacity, develop professional competencies, and expand their career opportunities as a foundation for success upon completing their studies. Furthermore, through cross-cultural exchange and collaborative learning, the program encourages participants to build strong international networks, foster mutual understanding, and contribute actively to sustainable development initiatives in their home countries—aligning with Indonesia's commitment to strengthening global partnerships for the achievement of sustainable development goals.

CHAPTER I
INTRODUCTION

A. BACKGROUND

The Universitas Islam Internasional Indonesia (UIII) was established based on Presidential Regulation (Perpres) No. 57 of 2016 concerning the Establishment of the Indonesian International Islamic University and has been in operation since 2021. UIII is an international-standard higher education institution and serves as a leading model for Islamic higher education in strategic Islamic studies under the Ministry of Religious Affairs.

UIII's primary mandate is to organize Master's and Doctoral programs within the Faculty of Islamic Studies, Faculty of Social Sciences, Faculty of Economics and Business, Faculty of Education, Faculty of Science and Technology, and Faculty of Law. UIII is envisioned to be at the forefront of research, where the output generated by faculty and students can serve as a global reference for the development of specific scientific fields.

Scholarships for students are a vital aspect of achieving the vision and mission of higher education. They are instrumental in fostering inclusive and equitable academic environments while supporting sustainable social and economic development. The INSANI Scholarship provides opportunities for citizens of registered countries to obtain an inclusive education, creating skilled, educated, and competent individuals who are expected to contribute to their nations' economic and social progress. Furthermore, the INSANI Scholarship supports innovation and research by enabling students to pursue advanced degrees, allowing them to engage in research and experimentation that may yield significant discoveries across various scientific disciplines.

B. OBJECTIVES AND SCOPE

The INSANI Scholarship is intended for foreign nationals (WNA) who meet the recipient criteria, with the following objectives:

1. To provide full educational financial assistance in the form of comprehensive scholarships to selected students.
